

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water wheel	File No
Address	Marysville - Buxton Road (Gallipoli Park) MARYSVILLE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Murrindindi Heritage Study (Stage 1) 2006).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Jericho Diversion Tunnel	File No
Address	(6 km south east of) MATLOCK	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tunnel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water storage associated with Fitzpatricks Mill Fire Tragedy Site	File No
Address	(about 7.5 km south west of) MATLOCK	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	McVeigh's Water Wheel	File No
Address	About 6km east-north-east of McMahons Creek, comprising Dam Wall, the Park and associated features. MCMAHONS CREEK	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Upper Yarra Aqueduct	File No
Address	About 6km east-north-east of McMahons Creek, comprising Dam Wall, the Park and associated features. MCMAHONS CREEK	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Aqueduct
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Former Melton Reservoir	File No
Address	Hannah Watts Park, High Street MELTON	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the Melton Shire Heritage Study, 2007).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Melton Weir	File No
Address	over Toolern Creek, Nixon Street MELTON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the Melton Shire Heritage Study, 2007).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Melton Dam	File No
Address	Exford Road MELTON SOUTH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

(For further information please refer to the ANCOLD Register of Large Dams)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Former Robinson House Tank	File No
Address	122-142 The Bullock Track MELTON WEST	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tank
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the Melton Shire Heritage Study, 2007).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Trough - Hermon's Saddle Tree reserve	File No
Address	Grantulla Road MENZIES CREEK	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Merbein Main Channel	File No
Address	Channel Road MERBEIN	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

DSE Historic Places Inventory (This inventory is an Access database held in September 2007 by the Public Assets Branch of the Department of Sustainability and Environment)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Merbein Main Pumping Station	File No
Address	Mildura - Merbein Road MERBEIN	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Meringur Tanks and Stands	File No
Address	MERINGUR	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tank
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Millewa A pumping station (pumping station reserve)	File No
Address	Millewa MERINGUR	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Millewa C Pumping station (Pumping station reserve)	File No
Address	Millewa MERINGUR	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Millewa Main Pumping Station Site	File No
Address	Millewa MERINGUR	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Thomas Mill - Mill machinery, dam wall, water race	File No
Address	620 Bridge Inn Road MERNDA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Mildura Lock and Weirs	File No
Address	(on) Murray River MILDURA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Shipwreck Kings Billabong	File No
Address	Cureton Avenue MILDURA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water tower - Mildura	File No
Address	MILDURA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to John Monash 'Engineering enterprise prior to WW1' website http://home.vicnet.net.au/~aholgate/jm/mainpages/list\_main.html)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Waranga Western Channel	File No
Address	McColl Road MILLOO	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	MMBW Water Tower	File No
Address	37 Lucknow Street MITCHAM	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Storage reservoir	File No
Address	Agra Street MITCHAM	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Pioneer Mine and Water Races	File No
Address	About 1.2km south of Mitta Mitta. MITTA MITTA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Mocamboro Bore, Merino Water Supply	File No
Address	near Bonds Road MOCAMBORO	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to DSE Historic Places Inventory (This inventory is an Access database held in September 2007 by the Public Assets Branch of the Department of Sustainability and Environment)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Fyans Lake	File No
Address	Mokepilly-Lake Fyans Road MOKEPILLY	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to the Hallows & Thompson, 1995, 'The History of Irrigation in Australia')

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Loombah Dam	File No
Address	Upper Ryan's Creek Road MOLYULLAH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the ANCOLD Register of Large Dams)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Moondarra Reservoir	File No
Address	MOONDARRA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	Road Reserve, McLennan Street MOORROOPNA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Mordialloc Railway Water Tower	File No
Address	corner Albert & Bear Street MORDIALLOC	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Pine Tank Water Storage Facility (former)	File No
Address	Millewa Road (Murray Sunset National Park) MORKALLA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tank
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water tower - Mortlake	File No
Address	Boundary Road MORTLAKE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to the John Monash 'Engineering enterprise prior to WW1' website
http://home.vicnet.net.au/~aholgate/jm/mainpages/list\_main.html)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Morwell Water Tower	File No
Address	Behind the SEC administration building MORWELL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Latrobe City Heritage Study 2005).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Lake Buffalo	File No
Address	MOUNT BUFFALO	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Moloney's Farm Site and Water Reserve	File No
Address	1884-1908 Mount Cottrell Road MOUNT COTTRELL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

Potential Significance - individual place

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.
(For further information please refer to the Melton Shire Heritage Study, 2007).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Moloneys Water (Tank) Reserve

Address MOUNT COTTRELL

Building Type Water Tank

Date

Assessment by

File No

Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

DSE Historic Places Inventory (This inventory is an Access database held in September 2007 by the Public Assets Branch of the Department of Sustainability and Environment)

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Mt Cottrell Road Stock Yards, Dam & Ruins	File No
Address	1476-1570 Mount Cottrell Road MOUNT COTTRELL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

Potential Significance - individual place

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.
(For further information please refer to the Melton Shire Heritage Study, 2007).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Mt Evelyn Water Supply System	File No
Address	Quinn Reserve MOUNT EVELYN	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Precinct
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Cypress windrows - Melbourne Water Reservoir	File No
Address	464-476 High Street Road MOUNT WAVERLEY	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Precinct
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Cattanach Canal	File No
Address	(crosses) Goulburn Weir-Murchison Road MURCHISON	Grading	2007
Building Type	Irrigation Channel/Canal
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information about this place please refer to the 'Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007')

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Loop Irrigation Channel and pump house site	File No
Address	Old Weir Road, off Allot 30 MURCHISON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.
(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Murchison Waterworks Trust Historic Area	File No
Address	East bank of Stuart Murray Canal MURCHISON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

DSE Historic Places Inventory (This inventory is an Access database held in September 2007 by the Public Assets Branch of the Department of Sustainability and Environment)

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Murchison Waterworks Trust pump and timber control gates	File No
Address	East bank of Stuart Murray Canal MURCHISON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Stuart Murray Canal	File No
Address	(crosses) Bendigo-Tatura Road MURCHISON	Grading	2007
Building Type	Irrigation Channel/Canal
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower (Murchison)	File No
Address	71 Stevenson Street MURCHISON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

For further information please refer to the Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Wheel	File No
Address	Murmungee Track, at junction of Cunningham and Judols Gullies MURMUNGEE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Marma Lake	File No
Address	MURTOA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

No information held

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Railway water tower	File No
Address	Comyn and Soldiers Avenue MURTOA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Goulburn Weir Complex	File No
Address	Goulburn Weir Road NAGAMBIE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Precinct
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Central Gippsland Irrigation System channel system	File No
Address	NAMBROK	Grading 2007
Building Type	Irrigation Channel/Canal
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to the Hallows & Thompson, 1995, 'The History of Irrigation in Australia')

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Baw Baw Water Race	File No
Address	Just south-west of the Maroondah Hwy, about 3km south-west of Narbethong at approximate AMG point 8022 - 793392. NARBETHONG	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Saint Ronans Well	File No
Address	Just south-west of the Maroondah Hwy, about 3km south-west of Narbethong at approximate AMG point 8022 - 793392. NARBETHONG	Grading	2007
Building Type	Well
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Thomson-Upper Yarra aqueduct

Address NARRACAN

Building Type Water Aqueduct

Date

Assessment by

File No

Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Possum Flat Bushland Reserve and Tank	File No
Address	Possum Flat Road NATYA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tank
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Tarago Dam	File No
Address	(off) Jindivick-Neerim South Road NEERIM SOUTH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Water Reserve (Iron's Dam Mine)

Address Scotts Road NEILBOROUGH

Building Type Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam

Date

Assessment by

File No

Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Newlyn Dam	File No
Address	Newlyn Reservoir Road NEWLYN	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to theANCOLD Register of Large Dams)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Kings Billabong pumping station residences	File No
Address	Cooke Street (CA 33 & 98A Blk F) NICHOLS POINT	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Nichols Point Pumping Station	File No
Address	corner Cureton Avenue & Karadoc Avenue (Pt CA1 Sec 9 Blk F) NICHOLS POINT	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Toorong Falls Area	File No
Address	About 50ha, on Toorong Road, 6km north-north-east of Noojee, comprising the area enclosed by three straight lines joining the following AMG points DU156097, 161111, 166104 and the commencement point. NOOJEE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water wheel	File No
Address	Latrobe River NOOJEE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Cossticks Weir	File No
Address	On Mundic Creek, Old Colquhoun Road, 6km west of Nowa Nowa NOWA NOWA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Nowingi Iron Clad Catchment

Address CA 2 Sec 3 NOWINGI

Building Type Water catchment - artificial

Date

Assessment by

File No

Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Nowingi Tank

Address NOWINGI

Building Type Water Tank

Date

Assessment by

File No

Grading

2007

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Concrete Basin	File No
Address	Murray Valley Highway/ Monash Avenue NYAH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Historic Pump House	File No
Address	River Street, corner Church Road NYAH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Nyah Irrigation System	File No
Address	NYAH	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Precinct
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Hallows & Thompson, 1995, 'The History of Irrigation in Australia')

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Tyntynder Channel Flume	File No
Address	Murray Valley Highway/ Hill Street NYAH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Mt Dandenong Water Tower	File No
Address	Ridge Road and Radnor Court (corner) OLINDA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Yarra Ranges Shire Heritage Study 2000).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Race - Oriental Claims Historic Area	File No
Address	2km south-west of Omeo OMEO	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Orbost Water Supply	File No
Address	Murrungowar Road, 14 km east of Orbost ORBOST	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Precinct
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to East Gippsland Shire Heritage Study 2005).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Pump House (former)	File No
Address	Forest Road ORBOST	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Aqueduct - Tarago River to Bunyip River	File No
Address	Thewlis Road PAKENHAM	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the Timeline History on the South East Water website)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water pipeline	File No
Address	[from Otways to Warrnambool] PANMURE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Pipe
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Moyne Shire Heritage Study 2002).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Drainage Channel	File No
Address	Carmody Road (south side) PEECHELBA EAST	Grading 2007
Building Type	Irrigation Channel/Canal
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Pipeline	File No
Address	across Curdies River PETERBOROUGH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pipe
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Underground Tank	File No
Address	Moran Street, corner Picola Road South PICOLA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tank
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower and Pond	File No
Address	Moran Street PICOLA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Daylesford-Upper Loddon State Forest water channel	File No
Address	Sawpit Gully Road PORCUPINE RIDGE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Lake Catani and weir wall	File No
Address	Mt Buffalo Road POREPUNKAH	Grading	2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Ovens River Diggings	File No
Address	Mill Bend POREPUNKAH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water tower	File No
Address	Main Street PORT ALBERT	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Concrete water tank	File No
Address	Princes Highway (north side) PORT FAIRY	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tank
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Pyramid Hill Water Tower	File No
Address	PYRAMID HILL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the John Monash 'Engineering enterprise prior to WW1' website
http://home.vicnet.net.au/~aholgate/jm/mainpages/list\_main.html)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Quambatook Weir (former)	File No
Address	over Avoca River QUAMBATOOK	Grading 2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Railway Water Tower	File No
Address	Railway Place QUARRY HILL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Raywood Reservoir
Address 34 Lincoln Street RAYWOOD
Building Type Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by

File No
Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay
Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Old Red Cliffs Urban Pump
Address Cooba Street RED CLIFFS
Building Type Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by

File No
Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay
Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Red Cliffs A Re-Lift Pumping station	File No
Address	Cocklin Avenue (CA 85b Sec. B) RED CLIFFS	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Red Cliffs C Re-Lift Pumping Station	File No
Address	Cocklin Avenue (Channel Reserve Sec. B) RED CLIFFS	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status    VHR -    HI -    PS -

Designer / Architect    No information held    Architectural Style    No information held

Maker / Builder    No information held

Integrity    No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

(For further information please refer to DSE Historic Places Inventory (This inventory is an Access database held in September 2007 by the Public Assets Branch of the Department of Sustainability and Environment)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Red Cliffs Main Pumping Station	File No
Address	Woomera Avenue (Crown Reserve Sec. B) RED CLIFFS	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

Potential Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

(For further information please refer to DSE Historic Places Inventory (This inventory is an Access database held in September 2007 by the Public Assets Branch of the Department of Sustainability and Environment)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Rosslyne reservoir	File No
Address	RIDDELLS CREEK	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Pumping Station off-take	File No
Address	off Hocking Road ROBINVALE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007).

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Robinvale B Re-lift pumping station	File No
Address	ROBINVALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status    VHR -    HI -    PS -

Designer / Architect    No information held    Architectural Style    No information held

Maker / Builder    No information held

Integrity    No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Robinvale C Re-lift pumping station	File No
Address	ROBINVALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Robinvale D Re-lift pumping station	File No
Address	ROBINVALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Robinvale E Re-lift pumping station	File No
Address	ROBINVALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Robinvale F Re-lift pumping station	File No
Address	ROBINVALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Robinvale Main Channel	File No
Address	ROBINVALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Robinvale Water Tower	File No
Address	ROBINVALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Windmill & Pumping Station - Robinvale Urban Water Supply	File No
Address	River Road, at Murray River Bridge ROBINVALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station Wind Pump
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Campaspe Weir	File No
Address	off Bendigo-Echuca/Burnewang Roads ROCHESTER	Grading	2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Waranga Western Channel Syphon

Address Strathallan Road ROCHESTER

Building Type Irrigation Channel/Canal

Date

Assessment by

File No

Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	Campaspe Street ROCHESTER	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Rokeby Water Pumping Station	File No
Address	Old Telegraph Road West ROKEBY	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Romsey water reserve	File No
Address	ROMSEY	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Dandenong Water Supply Aqueduct	File No
Address	Churchill National Park ROWVILLE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Aqueduct
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

(For further information please refer to DSE Historic Places Inventory (This inventory is an Access database held in September 2007 by the Public Assets Branch of the Department of Sustainability and Environment)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Waranga Reservoir	File No
Address	near RUSHWORTH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	Campbell Street and Carlyle Road (CA12B Sec 45) RUTHERGLEN	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Dalmore Well	File No
Address	RYTHDALE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Well
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to DSE Historic Places Inventory (This inventory is an Access database held in September 2007 by the Public Assets Branch of the Department of Sustainability and Environment)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Government bore and tank	File No
Address	Macalister street SALE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tank Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Pipe bridge	File No
Address	Cunninghame Street SALE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Pipe
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to the City of Sale Heritage Study 1994 by Context Pty Ltd)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Sale Waterworks Treatment Plant & Pumping Station	File No
Address	Cunninghame Street SALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to the City of Sale Heritage Study 1994 by Context Pty Ltd)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Victoria Park Water Towers	File No
Address	101-103 Macalister Street SALE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	Market Street SALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	East Loddon Station water tower	File No
Address	Longs Road, 1km west of Loddon Valley Highway, and 5km north of Serpentine SERPENTINE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	East Goulburn Districts irrigation system	File No
Address	SHEPPARTON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Irrigation Channel/Canal
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to the Hallows & Thompson, 1995, 'The History of Irrigation in Australia')

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Steam Pump foundations	File No
Address	The Boulevard SHEPPARTON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Waterworks building and tower
Address Welsford Street SHEPPARTON

File No
Grading
2007

Building Type Water Tower

Date

Assessment by

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Silvan Agricultural Area	File No
Address	About 4000ha, east of the Silvan Reservoir. This area includes the districts of Wandin, Wandin East, Wandin Yallock, Silvan and Burleigh SILVAN	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Precinct
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Silvan Reservoir and Park	File No
Address	Stonyford Road SILVAN	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Anderson's Mill and Water Wheel	File No
Address	corner Alice and George Streets SMEATON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	State Battery remains including concrete dam	File No
Address	75 Smiths Gully Road SMITHS GULLY	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Sullivans Bay Settlement Site (archaeological evidence - casks sunk in the sand for a water supply, wells)	File No
Address	3074 Point Nepean Road SORRENTO	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Spring Gully Dam	File No
Address	(off) Spring Gully Road SPRING GULLY	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to ANCOLD Register of Large Dams)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Supply Reserve (New Chum Goldfields)	File No
Address	Diamond Hill Road SPRING GULLY	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Taylors Lake	File No
Address	Horsham-Lubeck Road ST HELENS PLAINS	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Wimmera-Mallee Stock and Domestic Water Supply System (1996)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	St James Water Tower	File No
Address	ST JAMES	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the John Monash 'Engineering enterprise prior to WW1' website
http://home.vicnet.net.au/~aholgate/jm/mainpages/list\_main.html)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Trudgeon's Weir	File No
Address	Ledcourt- St Leonards Road, west of Stawell STAWELL	Grading	2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to Wimmera-Mallee Stock and Domestic Water Supply System (1996))

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Polly McQuinns Reserve	File No
Address	(4 km south-east of) STRATHBOGIE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Teddington Reservoirs	File No
Address	Teddington Road STUART MILL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to the LCC, 1997, 'Historic Places Special Investigation South Western Victoria Final Recommendations', p.76)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Asylum Water Supply ruins	File No
Address	Jacksons Creek (Asylum) Reserve SUNBURY	Grading	2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Railway Water Tower at Sunbury Railway Station	File No
Address	Riddell Road SUNBURY	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	MMBW Water Tower	File No
Address	313 Elgar Road SURREY HILLS	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Lower Murray Water Pumping Station No. 1	File No
Address	Monash Drive SWAN HILL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Pumping Station No. 1	File No
Address	Monash Drive (opp Swimming Pool) SWAN HILL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Second Water Tower	File No
Address	McCallum Street (corner Splatt Street) SWAN HILL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	89 Splatt Street SWAN HILL	Grading	2007
Building Type	Irrigation Channel/Canal
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	McCallum Street (Cnr. Monash Drive) SWAN HILL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	McCallum Street (Cnr. Splatt Street) SWAN HILL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Race	File No
Address	off 311 Taggerty-Thornton Road TAGGERTY	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Murrindindi Heritage Study (Stage 1) 2006)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Old Tanjil Bren Reservoir & Tanjil Bren Reservoir	File No
Address	Scotty's Track (The old dam is located 50m upstream) TANJIL BREN	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Baw Baw Heritage Study 2005)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Coliban Main Channel	File No
Address	Fryers Taradale Road TARADALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Coliban Water Channel	File No
Address	Boundary Road TARADALE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Tarnagulla Reservoir	File No
Address	Stanley Street Extension TARNAGULLA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Cast Iron Water Tower and Tank

Address Kerford Street TATURA

Building Type Water Tower
Water Tank

Date

Assessment by

File No

Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

---

Cast Iron Water Tower and Tank

Hermes No 27517 Place Citation Report

01-Nov-2007

6:21 pm

1

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Former Goulburn-Murray Water Depot	File No
Address	William Street TATURA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Former Rodney Irrigation Trust Office

Address 49 Hogan Street TATURA

Building Type Other - Utilities - Water

Date

Assessment by

File No

Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower and Waterworks Trust buildings	File No
Address	Murchison-Tatura Road TATURA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Water tower - Tongala

Address TONGALA

Building Type Water Tower

Date

Assessment by

File No

Grading

2007

Extent of Overlay

Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

John Monash website 'Engineering Enterprise prior to WW1'
(http://home.vicnet.net.au/~aholgate/jm/mainpages/list\_main.html)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Railway Water Tower	File No
Address	Wanganui-Mangalore Line, off Daunt Street TOOLAMBA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Toolondo Reservoir	File No
Address	Natimuk-Hamilton Road TOOLONDO	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status    VHR -    HI -    PS -

Designer / Architect    No information held    Architectural Style    No information held

Maker / Builder    No information held

Integrity    No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to the Hallows & Thompson, 1995, 'The History of Irrigation in Australia')

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Traralgon railway reservoir, conservation reserve	File No
Address	between Hyde Park Rd and Hiscox St, off Rose Ave TRARALGON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Traralgon water tower	File No
Address	Henry Street, corner Fairview Street TRARALGON	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Latrobe City Heritage Study 2005)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Hut and channel	File No
Address	Miralie-Cocamba Road TUDOR	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Tungamah Water Tower	File No
Address	TUNGAMAH	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the John Monash 'Engineering enterprise prior to WW1' website
http://home.vicnet.net.au/~aholgate/jm/mainpages/list\_main.html)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Traralgon Water Trust Weir	File No
Address	Tyers Road (at Latrobe River) TYERS	Grading	2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Latrobe City Heritage Study 2005)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	McDonnell Street WAHGUNYAH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water tower - Wahgunyah	File No
Address	WAHGUNYAH	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the John Monash 'Engineering enterprise prior to WW1' website
http://home.vicnet.net.au/~aholgate/jm/mainpages/list\_main.html)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Tank and windmill	File No
Address	Bishop Road WAITCHIE	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tank Wind Pump
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Huddlestons Weir	File No
Address	Stapledon's Road WAL WAL	Grading	2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Wimmera-Mallee Stock and Domestic Water Supply System (1996)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Pickerings Spillway	File No
Address	Stapledon's Road WAL WAL	Grading	2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Wimmera-Mallee Stock and Domestic Water Supply System (1996)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Diversion Channel	File No
Address	Happy Go Lucky Creek WALHALLA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Baw Baw Heritage Study 2005)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Wanalta Weir	File No
Address	WANALTA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	The Water Tower district	File No
Address	WANGARATTA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Precinct
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Lilydale - Warburton Railway Line: Old Water Pipe	File No
Address	Park Road (near) WARBURTON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Pipe
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Yarra Ranges Shire Heritage Study 2000)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	McVeigh's Water Wheel (Upper Yarra Reservoir Park)	File No
Address	Woods Point Road (off Warburton Highway) WARBURTON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Irrigation Channel/Canal Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls

No information held
---------------------

Internal Alteration Controls

No information held
---------------------

Tree Controls

No information held
---------------------

Fences & Outbuildings

No information held
---------------------

Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted

No information held
---------------------

Incorporated Plan

No information held
---------------------

Aboriginal Heritage Place

No information held
---------------------

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	O'Shannassy Lodge	File No
Address	Warburton Highway WARBURTON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	O'Shannassy Reservoir Park	File No
Address	Warburton Highway WARBURTON	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	O'Shannassy Weir and aqueduct	File No
Address	Warburton Highway WARBURTON	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Aqueduct Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Upper Yarra Reservoir	File No
Address	Woods Point Road (off Warburton Highway) WARBURTON	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	Kelsall Street, corner Schickerling Street WARRACKNABEAL	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status    VHR -    HI -    PS -

Designer / Architect    No information held    Architectural Style    No information held

Maker / Builder    No information held

Integrity    No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Supply Reservoir & Concrete Tank	File No
Address	Reservoir Road WARRAGUL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam Water Tank
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Headmaster's house and in-ground water tank at former Koornong Experimental School	File No
Address	25 Koornong Crescent WARRANDYTE NORTH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tank
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Tank Hill Reservoir and pipeline	File No
Address	(near) WARRNAMBOOL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

(For further information please refer to the ANCOLD Register of Large Dams)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water tower and wall (liebig Street storage)	File No
Address	207 Liebig Street WARRNAMBOOL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water tower at Warrnambool Railway Station	File No
Address	Merri Street WARRNAMBOOL	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Mount Zero channel system	File No
Address	near track off Mt Victory Road WARTOOK	Grading 2007
Building Type	Irrigation Channel/Canal
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Wimmera-Mallee Stock and Domestic Water Supply System (1996)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	K Road Cliffs	File No
Address	At Werribee Golf links, extending south for about 1 km WERRIBEE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

( For further information please refer to DSE Historic Places Inventory (This inventory is an Access database held in September 2007 by the Public Assets Branch of the Department of Sustainability and Environment)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower & Office	File No
Address	1 Tower Road WERRIBEE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Werribee reservoir	File No
Address	WERRIBEE	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Clover Dam	File No
Address	(on) East Kiewa River WODONGA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the ANCOLD Register of Large Dams)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Junction Dam	File No
Address	East Kiewa River WODONGA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

(For further information please refer to the ANCOLD Register of Large Dams)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Wodonga Water Tower	File No
Address	Corner of High Street & Hovell Street WODONGA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status    VHR -    HI -    PS -

Designer / Architect    No information held    Architectural Style    No information held

Maker / Builder    No information held

Integrity    No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Lance Creek Dam	File No
Address	Lance Creek WONTHAGGI	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

(For further information please refer to the ANCOLD Register of Large Dams)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Stander Creek Mines (water wheel)	File No
Address	11.5km east-south-east of Woods Point, being the area bounded by a line commencing on the eastern side of Royal Standard Spur Track WOODS POINT	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Harvey's Tank	File No
Address	Woorinen Road WOORINEN SOUTH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Tank
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Public standpipe	File No
Address	Woorinen Road WOORINEN SOUTH	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Public standpipe	File No
Address	Woorinen Road (corner Palmer Street) WOORINEN SOUTH	Grading	2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of local significance. It is included in the Heritage Overlay of a municipal planning scheme. Please refer to the relevant Heritage Study for more information about the significance of the place.

Assessment Against Criteria

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Lake used for Woorndoo water supply	File No
Address	On main road 1km before Woorndoo WOORNDOO	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Moyne Shire Heritage Study 2002)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Wunghnu Service Reservoir	File No
Address	Goulburn Valley Highway WUNGHNU	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the John Monash 'Engineering enterprise prior to WW1' website
http://home.vicnet.net.au/~aholgate/jm/mainpages/list\_main.html)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Wurdiboluc Reservoir	File No
Address	Cape Otway Road WURDIBOLUC	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the LCC, 1997, 'Historic Places Special Investigation South Western Victoria Final Recommendations', p.89)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Arkins Creek Weirs	File No
Address	(off) Colac-Lavers Hill Road WYELANGTA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Weir
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the LCC, 1997'Historic Places Special Investigation South Western Victoria Final Recommendations', p.89)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	North Otway Pipeline	File No
Address	(off) Colac-Lavers Hill Road WYELANGTA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Pipe
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to the LCC, 1997, 'Historic Places Special Investigation South Western Victoria Final Recommendations', p.89)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Wheel	File No
Address	Mopoke Creek YAPEEN	Grading 2007
Building Type	Other - Utilities - Water
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Reservoir (decommissioned)	File No
Address	south of YARRAGON	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Stuchbery Farm Complex (wells)	File No
Address	85-87 Latrobe Road YARRAMBAT	Grading 2007
Building Type	Well
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Lake Mulwala (Yarrowonga Reservoir)	File No
Address	off Murray Valley Highway YARRAWONGA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower	File No
Address	1 Irvine Parade YARRAWONGA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Water Tower and Pumping Station	File No
Address	Sharp Street and Murray Valley Highway YARRAWONGA	Grading	2007
Building Type	Water Pump House/Pumping Station Water Tower
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay	Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status    VHR -    HI -    PS -

Designer / Architect    No information held    Architectural Style    No information held

Maker / Builder    No information held

Integrity    No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

( For further information please refer to Inventory and Report on Historic Places in the VEAC River Red Gum Forests Investigation Area 2007)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Yarrowonga Channel	File No
Address	YARRAWONGA	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Channel
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name Yarrowonga Weir
Address off Weir Road YARRAWONGA
Building Type Weir
Date
Assessment by

File No
Grading
2007

Extent of Overlay
Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

The significance of this place is unknown as there is insufficient information. Further assessment is required in Stage 2.

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

---

Name	Wartook reservoir	File No
Address	Wartook Road ZUMSTEINS	Grading 2007
Building Type	Water Supply Reservoir/ Dam
Date
Assessment by		Extent of Overlay Refer recommendations.

---

Condition

Heritage Status VHR - HI - PS -

Designer / Architect No information held Architectural Style No information held

Maker / Builder No information held

Integrity No information held

History and Historical Context

Relevant Historical Australian Themes

No information held

Description

No information held

Comparative Analysis

Statement of Significance

This place is of potential significance:

- as part of a system where other parts are already included in the HO or VHR, or
- as a place that has been identified and/or assessed by a heritage study, report, register or database, or
- as a key place associated with an important theme in Victoria's water supply heritage.

Victorian Water Supply Heritage Study

(For further information please refer to theLCC, 1997, 'Historic Places Special Investigation South Western Victoria Final Recommendations', p.63 and other references)

Assessment Against Criteria

No information held

Recommendations (2007)

Heritage Study Planning Scheme Recommendations

External Paint Controls	No information held
Internal Alteration Controls	No information held
Tree Controls	No information held
Fences &amp; Outbuildings	No information held
Prohibited Uses May Be Permitted	No information held
Incorporated Plan	No information held
Aboriginal Heritage Place	No information held

Other Recommendations

No information held

References

No references held